SELECTMEN EXPLAIN TOWN FINANCES

In the statement they will present to sae voters of the town of Norwich at the coming annual meeting, the selections will recommend a town tax of nine mills to meet the estimated total expenses of $202,462.35. To this must be added the eight mills recommended for a school tax, making a town tax of limits.

The coming winter is in the coming winter is in the coming winter is in the same past year several special town meetings have been called on meetings appropriations were made for various purposes. While the various objects are doubtless possessed of limits.

be mentioned that the work on the lisbon bridge, which is under the charge of the state highway department, is progressing satisfactorily. While this work is being done by the state and is a matter over which your board has no control a considerable proportion of the expense has to be borne by this town, which will add somewhat more than one mill to this partnient has been kept at a minimum and slightly decreased over last year, in spite of the increased cost of all supplies. The almshouse has been efficiently cared for by its superinten-dents. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman, and the inmates well looked after, while their services about the farm and in cutting wood for distribution to the outside poor are much appreciated by the selectmen. The board of selectmen recommend that they be authorized to purchase the tract of about 40 deres distributed to a purchase the purchase the selectment and stances. but there has been expenditure of about $74,000 placed on the town, over which the selectimes have in control, and there is a feercase in the certime of the selectmen.

The situation are to the citizens explain to the situation are to the citizens explain to work has been been year and team.

During the selectmen as this state of recent years, but by a study of the estimate of receipts and expenses of the town, due to the damage caused by several severe citorns in addition to the ordinary wear and teaf. This work has been impossible as the selection of the selection of the selectmen of the selectmen.

The macadam on Providence street in to the resultance of the selection of the selectmen of the two was an ecessary to pay an increase of amount for the wages of both men and teams. The macadam on Providence street in the the-highways are believed to be in satisfactory condition, To accomplish this, however, it was necessary to pay an increase of the work, but at the spread expense of the work, but at the spread time the-highways are believed to be in satisfactory condition. To accomplish this, however, it was necessary to pay an increase and the control of your beard will have a study of the sellents of the town. To accomplish this, however, it was necessary to pay an increase of the more and teams. The macadam on Providence street in the decrease in receipts. The town in the forth was a state of the town and the control of the selections of the federal government of the wage of both men and teams. The macadam of Providence street in the selection of the selections of the federal government of the wage of the town have been inoked after and kept in repair as needed from time to time. It was a conting to the federal government of the selection of the who has been or will hereafter be called into the service of his country has previously paid this tax and is now exempt from payment of the same.

Thus we have expenditures placed upon us from without of some $74,000 and a decrease in receipts, equally unavoidable, of about $34,000, or a total additional cost to the town of about six mills, considerably more than the total increase in the tax rate.

The estimates of the town school committee, if approved by the town meeting, will call for a further appro-priation of eight mills for school purposes for the coming year. This in-crease is usecrstood by your board to be due to a variety of causes but chiefly to the increase in the salaries of the teachers which was voted at the recently held special town meeting. The combined estimates of the se ommend that they be authorized to purchase the tract of about 40 deres adjoining the almehouse property, and will therefore call for a total tax of which has been used in connection with it for several years, if this can be whatever further appropriations may done at a reasonable figure, as the land is most valuable for pasture and till with the several special petitions age and tends to decrease the cost of this department of the town's activities.
